Don't learn much. Not everyone gets an A. Your MBA PM determines your grade. Seems like only PMs really get As. Fall semester the PMs are MBAs, and Spring they are undergrads. Experience depends a lot on who you get. It is not supposed to be curved, but the

I enjoy the content and professor knows his stuff, but course is very unorganized. Syllabus does not follow grading rubric or class schedule and he only told us about the midterm 2 weeks prior to it and his wording was significantly confusing. Brightspace is also a mess and shows everything from the class last year.

Nice guy, knows his stuff, but the class was probably my least favorite non-required class at NYU and Stern. Half the assignments had
